

IF IT HAPPENS
IT'S HEREPACKY REFUSES;
WELSH ACCEPTSThe Chicago Fighter Sidesteps
Memie and English Boxer
Signs Up.

Los Angeles, Jan. 18.—Manager McCarey yesterday closed negotiations for a ten-round bout between Freddie Welsh and George Memie to be staged at Naud Junction the night of Feb. 2. These boys were matched for an early January date, but Welsh injured his left hand in training and had to call it off until the injured hand got back into fighting condition. Then it was proposed that the winner of the Packy McFarland-Dick Hylander bout should take on Memie, but Packy refused to make weight without a guarantee, and Welsh was offered the match and says will make 133 pounds at 6 o'clock the day of the fight.

There was very jubilant last night at the success in finally landing a good match. He is in perfect health now, his skin showing the ruddy glow of health, and he hopes to defeat the speedy and clever English champion so decisively as to fully give him his declaration that he is better than when he fought Charlie Meary. George has been training regularly since he returned from the east, and says that the most pleasing result thereof is to find that he can scale at the lightweight limit with greatest ease and be strong and as fast and as clever as he ever was.

The city bowling league opened its second season last night with games between the Browns and Z. C. M. I. teams. As a rule good scores resulted in nearly all of the games.

BUSY EXPLAINING DEFEAT

Ring Dopesters All Over the Country
Got Off Badly on Pocatello Scrap.

There was a number of ring sharks who lost their reputations as prophets on the Sullivan-Thompson fight at Pocatello last Friday night. Thompson was the favorite in practically every fight center in the country except Salt Lake. Some of the prophets endeavored to even matters by publishing reports of the fight, which are amusing to say the least. One of these accounts appeared in the Denver Post and in part is as follows:

"Thompson, whose record entitles him to a match with Nelson, injured his hand early in the fight and this prevented him from doing his best. He has twice defeated Sullivan and, though outpointed, it is evident that with good hands he would have again been returned the winner."

"It was plain from the fifth round that Thompson was in great pain, but the game little fighter fought on, hoping against hope, until the battle was over. He displayed remarkable gameness, being handicapped as he was."

"A late start delayed the finish until about eleven o'clock. The fight was a close one, but withstood most terrific punishment, landing frequently with hard blows and putting the men in the third round. From the start both men bled profusely and the arena presented a gory spectacle. One of Sullivan's gloves broke during the fight, and Sullivan was forced to fight with one hand under the Illinois lad's fierce onslaught."

The above account says Thompson twice defeated Sullivan by Thompson, when he gave the Sycamore boy a good whipping. Neither did Thompson injure his hand in the fifth round, nor did he break Sullivan's glove. Thompson from considerable punishment, as it came at a time when Sullivan had him in a bad way, Sullivan simply repeated his first fight with Thompson when he gave the Sycamore boy a good whipping.

Haste was made so that the work could be completed today. No announcement of the schedule arrangements will be made until April.

Both Johnson and Pulliam had prepared in advance tentative schedules. Conflicting dates in the five cities having both American league and National league teams were straightened out.

BICYCLE RIDERS
LIKE SALT LAKE

Heagren's Mail Shows Many Inquiries About Prospects for Next Season.

Ever since it was announced that Harry Heagren was the likely manager of the saucer tracks hereabouts the coming season, offers to come here and ride during the season have been pouring in. Heagren has been busy answering these letters, giving the riders his plans for the coming season. From present indications there will be riders galore, and if only half the men come who say they will, there will be the largest field of starters since cycle racing became a sport at the Salt Palace.

Yesterday's mail brought in letters from Waltham, West, Demara, Bardgett, Walker and Lawrence. In each case the boys wanted to know "what's doing." All of the men are well known to the local fans and the slowest one in the bunch is fast enough to make any race of the Grand Rapids. It is yet a full four months before the season opens. It is hard to say just who will be here and who will not, but if early interest shown in the game is any criterion to go by there will be plenty of them on hand when the starting pistol is fired.

PAPKE MAY QUIT THE RING

Illinois Thunderbolt Says He Wants a Good Rest Before Talking Fight.

Hot Springs, Ark., Jan. 18.—Still greatly depressed because of his defeat at the hands of Hugo Kelly, the Italian middleweight now fighting for a chance at Stanley Ketchel, Billy Papke today declared that he may never fight again.

The Kewanee lad has arrived here to spend a few weeks. On his arrival he was approached as to whether he would meet Kelly on the coast Jan. 29. The question brought out the answer that he may never fight again.

Whether he will remain out of the ring for good or not, he alone can tell, but he assured all his inquirers that he would not don a glove for at least two months. "I want a good rest," said Papke. "If I don't get it and in good shape in two months I shall take on all comers regardless of weight or color."

Papke does not look like the same fighter who here last spring, to meet Ketchel at Milwaukee. He appears pale and drawn and his statement caused no great surprise inasmuch as he declared he might retire immediately after his defeat by Ketchel at San Francisco.

W. Fielder, and Wernitz, catcher, to Flint and Kalamazoo of the Southern Michigan league.

POP ANSON IS "BUSTED."

Chicago, Jan. 18.—"Busted." This is the financial condition of Adrian C. Anson, former baseball leader, as expressed by himself in Judge Fryer's debtors' court today. Mr. Anson was explaining why he could not pay a bill for $111. His income, he said, depended upon the success of his semi-professional team, "Anson's Colts," which, he said, would be in uniform next season.

CHICAGO CLUBS
BID FOR YOUNG

Comiskey and Murphy After Famous Old Pitcher as a Drawing Card.

Chicago, Jan. 18.—Both Charlie Murphy and Charlie Comiskey are after old Cy Young with hot foot and eager hand. Both have the idea that the great old pitcher will be the biggest attraction that could be secured for a Chicago team.

And if the two Chicago teams will be secured a bid for the whole field and against each other.

"If Cy Young is placed on the baseball market the Chicago National league club will bid as high as anybody for him," said President Murphy. "I am aware, of course, that there will be something like fourteen other bidders after the great old boy, but I'll make as good an offer as the other fellows, and may be a little bit better."

Mr. Murphy would like to add Denton H. Young,
